

"Global Sumud Flotilla": A Humanitarian Cover with Documented Links to Hamas and the Muslim Brotherhood

September 2025

General – The planned flotilla to Israel as part of the Global Sumud Flotilla

The planned flotilla to Israel as part of the Global Sumud Flotilla is not a one-off event but part of a multi-layered framework operating in a “dynamic-decentralized” mode. This framework is based on three main axes:

1. Civil-public axis, led by the March to Gaza movement and BDS organizations, which provides on-the-ground infrastructure, recruitment and logistics systems and public support. This axis deploys local activists in different countries, establishes ties with local authorities, activates student communities and encourages attendance at demonstrations and disruptions at ports. A major outcome of this activity is continuous public noise — protests in more than a hundred locations — designed to establish a pro-Hamas presence in the civil space and exert “legitimate” pressure on ports and shipping companies.
2. Palestinian-international axis, led by Global March to Gaza, which provides spokesperson leadership, inter-continental coordination and propaganda. It coordinates schedules, narratives and international fundraising channels and can redirect the focus of activity according to the changing reality — for example, after the land march from Africa was blocked, the effort returned to the maritime flotilla. This axis operates varied public relations channels such as webinars, Telegram channels and an influencer network, including figures identified with Hamas.
3. Religious axis, led by the Algerian initiative and the Association of Muslim Scholars. This axis supplies ideological framing, normative backing and historic links to the Muslim Brotherhood and Hamas. It is critical in building legitimacy, whitewashing the resistance narrative and presenting the activity as a moral-humanitarian struggle.

Combining the three axes creates an integrated framework that presents itself as humanitarian but in practice provides legitimacy, cognitive cover and sometimes logistical assistance to terror networks.

As part of the research, an extensive OSINT review of March to Gaza activity was conducted to identify links between the organization and individuals driving the activity. It found that discourse and field activity are led by several organizers who operate mainly through a central Telegram group that serves as the management hub for all demonstrations, instructions, documentation and publications. The findings indicate that the planned Global Sumud Flotilla is operated by an international network with ties to the Hamas terrorist organization, the Muslim Brotherhood and other extremist groups.

Analysis of Activity Organizers

Connections to figures associated with the Muslim Brotherhood and Hamas

Yahia Sarri

Yahia Sarri

Yahia Sarri serves as the chairman of the Algerian Initiative to Support Palestine and is considered one of the central figures who initiated and led the “Sumud convoy” (قافلة الصمود البرية) – a land convoy from Algeria meant to demonstrate popular solidarity with the residents of Gaza and turn support for Palestine into action on the ground.¹ The Sumud convoy is part of the Global March to Gaza, and in practice Abu Keshk was among the global organizers of the convoy while Sarri led the Algerian component.²

An unofficial Facebook post noted connections between Abu Keshk and Sheikh Yahia Sarri. The post describes both men as the architects of the campaign (apparently referring to the Sumud convoy) and claims that although they belong to different Islamic factions they share a similar agenda and funding source.

Many Egyptian news sites and military analysts contended that the Muslim Brotherhood stood behind the “Sumud convoy” headed by Sarri.³ Political and military analyst Brigadier General Hatem Atif, a former senior officer in the Egyptian army, warned that although the convoy appeared to be a civilian and spontaneous activity expressing solidarity with Gaza, in practice it was pre-planned and orchestrated by the international Muslim Brotherhood.⁴ He also highlighted Abu Keshk’s ties to Sarri and noted that Abu Keshk serves as a representative of the Palestinian youth network in Spain, a network under the “Union of Muslim Councils in Europe” that unites Islamic organizations supporting the Muslim Brotherhood across the continent.⁵ Atif further noted Sarri’s ideological background, calling him one of the leaders of the Association of Muslim Scholars – the historic arm of the Muslim Brotherhood in Algeria. Sarri espouses a Salafi-Jihadist ideology and previously said that “the fatwas of Daesh were correct but their application was wrong,” an expression of his ideological background.⁶

Sarri was documented in 2022 in direct connection with senior Hamas officials at a conference in Algeria in support of Palestinians. Senior Hamas leaders Zaher Jabarin and Osama Hamdan attended, and a photo shows Sarri standing alongside Hamdan among Algerian officials and Hamas leaders.

Sarri with Hamas officials

In addition to his senior roles, Sarri is in the leadership of the Algerian Muslim Scholars Association (Arabic: جمعية العلماء المسلمين الجزائريين), established in 1931 under French rule. Founded by Sheikh Abd al-Hamid Ibn Badis, its aim was to preserve the Arab-Islamic identity of the Algerian people and provide Islamic and Arabic education in place of French education.⁷⁸

In January 2024 Sarri met publicly with senior Hamas official Bassem Naim, head of Hamas's foreign relations department, as part of his initiative to assist Gaza. The meeting was meant to express Hamas's gratitude for Algerian support of Gaza and the Palestinian struggle, strengthen ties with civil and religious initiatives in Algeria and highlight a strategic partnership between Hamas and religious and social circles in North Africa.⁹

Sarri meeting Hamas

At the annual iftar event of the Algerian Islamist party Movement of Society for Peace (unrelated to Palestinian Hamas) in March 2024, both Sami Abu Zuhri, a senior Hamas official, and Sarri participated. Abu Zuhri praised Algeria's positions and support for Gaza, while Sarri took part in the spiritual session concluding the conference. Their shared presence at this prominent official event provides another direct link between Hamas leadership and Sarri.¹⁰ Beyond all these roles, Sarri heads a Relief Committee under the Algerian Scholars Association, through which over the years indications of aid from Algeria to Gaza have emerged.¹¹

The connection between the Muslim Scholars Association and the Muslim Brotherhood

Khaled Safi

Khaled Safi (Arabic: خالد صافي) is a media and social-network activist born in Gaza¹⁶ who became known as a blogger and prominent digital influencer. In 2012 he won the “Best Arab Blog” award in a Deutsche Welle competition and over the last decade has established himself as a prominent voice from Gaza.¹⁷ Safi is a member of the Palestinian Journalists Syndicate and works as an instructor in new media and blogging.¹⁸ He maintains a personal website and social media platforms with a large audience – his X account has more than 330,000 followers.¹⁹ In addition to his online activity, Safi hosted a weekly radio show called “Technical Pages”, which discussed technology and new media²⁰; episodes of the show aired on “Voice of al-Aqsa,” a radio station affiliated with the Hamas government in Gaza.²¹

Although Safi is not formally affiliated with Hamas, there are significant connections between him and Hamas:

- Work in Hamas-affiliated media: Safi served as a graphic designer and content provider at the Shehab news agency. Shehab was founded in Gaza in 2007 and is clearly identified with Hamas, functioning as a media arm promoting Hamas positions.²² According to reports, Facebook suspended Shehab's page due to "violating policy against violence" in relation to Hamas content.²³ His work at Shehab puts him in direct professional contact with Hamas media.

Facebook suspension of Shehab News Agency

- Identification with Hamas narrative: In his social media activity Safi often expresses support for Palestinian resistance in Gaza, including Hamas's military wing. For example, in November 2023 he posted on Twitter paying tribute to the "martyr" Anas al-Sharif²⁴, who was a Hamas operative disguised as a journalist at al-Jazeera.²⁵

Safi praise of Hamas

- Proximity to Hamas and Islamic Jihad environment: Safi frequently covers and comments on events in Gaza, including activities of Hamas's military wing (the al-Qassam Brigades). He openly supports Hamas leaders and mourns those killed during the "Iron Swords" war.²⁶²⁷ In one post he wrote, for example, that Mohammad Deif, the commander who ignited the "al-Aqsa Flood", left an enduring inspiration for fighters and hope for victory.

Collaborations and appearances with Saif Abu Keshk

During 2025 Safi joined the organizers of Gaza March. Abu Keshk, the initiative's spokesperson, said about 4,000 activists from 80 countries intended to participate in the march to Gaza.²⁸²⁹ Safi helped promote the activity; he hosted an online discussion titled "The Popular Effort to Break the Siege" with Abu Keshk and other members of the march team³⁰³¹, serving as moderator. This appearance indicates public cooperation with Abu Keshk.

Paris Laftsis*Paris Laftsis*

Paris Laftsis manages the March to Gaza Greece group and is a central figure in the organization, acting as the main coordinator of activity in Greece. On the Telegram group he spreads information about demonstrations and gatherings. Laftsis was one of the leaders of the “March to Gaza” delegation last June; members of the delegation were arrested upon landing in Cairo. In an interview he gave to the Greek news site IN.GR he described the arrest and the treatment delegation members received from Egyptian authorities³²³³. In addition to this activity, Laftsis began to promote organization of flotillas to Gaza under the Global Sumud Flotilla, which arose after the march in Egypt failed.

Saif Abu Keshk

Saif Abu Keshk³⁴ is active in senior positions in several organizations. He serves as chairman of the International Coalition against the Israeli Occupation³⁵, spokesperson for Global March to Gaza and one of the senior figures in the organization³⁶. In addition, Abu Keshk acts as spokesperson and coordinator of the “Sumud Flotilla” (Global Sumud Flotilla)³⁷ – an international initiative promoting flotillas to Gaza with the aim of “breaking Israel’s maritime blockade of Gaza.” In June 2025, Egyptian authorities arrested Abu Keshk, who was responsible for organizing the March to Gaza delegation³⁸; at the same time Paris Laftsis was also detained. All March to Gaza organizations, including in Greece, called for his release. No definitive data were found on direct links between Abu Keshk and Laftsis, but since Abu Keshk is the chief coordinator of March to Gaza and publications on March to Gaza Greece social media channels mention him as leading overall activity, it is assessed that there are direct connections between them.

In January 2025 Abu Keshk founded the Global Coalition for Palestine, also known as Saned³⁹. The organization began at a conference on 31 January attended by various anti-Israel and pro-Palestinian figures. On its page Saned lists direct connections (“supporting platforms”) to:

1. Soumoud Convoy (قافلة الصمود) – the convoy that left Algeria for Rafah in June 2025.
2. March to Gaza.
3. Freedom Flotilla Coalition.
4. Women’s Boat to Gaza.
5. “Stop Gaza Starvation” campaign.

Sotiris Lapieris

Sotiris Lapieris is a Greek academic and activist who serves as a researcher at Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences. His research interests include Marxism and state structures. Lapieris is notable for his involvement in political struggles, including as a member of BDS Greece and as a participant in pro-Palestinian and anti-imperialist activism. He is active as a writer and commentator on contemporary political issues and is particularly engaged in supporting resistance struggles and solidarity with the Palestinian people.

In 2022 he was arrested while serving as a member of the Halandri city council and leading political activist during a demonstration on environmental and human-rights issues in Greece.

According to eyewitness reports and visual evidence, he confronted police and was violently beaten and arrested solely because, according to him, he protested against the rough treatment of other demonstrators. Lapieris and his supporters rejected all accusations, emphasizing that this was an act of repression aimed at deterring democratic activity, particularly as he operated within a public institution meant to oversee police arbitrariness. The incident sparked a wave of solidarity from civil society and highlighted the public struggle for freedom of demonstration and protection of basic civil rights.⁴⁰

Greek police violence

He participates in and moderates events supporting Gaza and the Palestinian people⁴¹. Sotiris also took part in the “March to Gaza” organized by Global March to Gaza, where he was seen alongside Paris Laftsis; upon arrival at the airport Lapieris was detained for about 11 hours and then released⁴².

Organizers intended to include a Hamas representative but Israeli authorities intervened and exerted heavy pressure to prevent it.

Assembly marking Jerusalem Day

According to the official website of Masar Badil, the report on the event emphasised solidarity and resistance⁴⁴⁴⁵. Speeches were delivered by lawyer Yannis Rahiotis and Sotiris Lapieris, member of BDS Greece. Khaled Barakat remarked that the day reminds us that the crimes of the Zionist entity in Palestine and the region will not go unanswered; he called for a united struggle to protect the rights, dignity and resources of peoples and noted that more and more people are now understanding the nature of the common enemy: the murderous colonial project "Israel." He stressed that the Palestinian cause is the cause of everyone in the world who fights for justice and freedom and called for unity of all forces opposing imperialism, Zionism and fascism. A representative of the Front Against Imperialism, Constantina Karsiotis, highlighted the need for a front in Greece to support the axis of resistance with organized and serious action. The organizing committee noted that the absence of a Hamas representative was due to intervention by the "Zionist entity." World Jerusalem Day, chosen to inaugurate the association, was presented as a day of struggle against American-European-Zionist imperialism, reinforcing the message that solidarity and resistance will continue until full liberation.

Khaled Barakat at Jerusalem Day in Athens via video call

On the afternoon of 7 October Lapieris posted on Facebook praising the attack in Israel, commending the resistance and terror organisations, quoting the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine (PFLP) and expressing support for Hezbollah, which he called “the backbone of the resistance in the Middle East.” In the post he wrote:

“Gaza has fled! This morning, from the largest open-air prison in the world, the Palestinian resistance launched the operation ‘Attack on al-Aqsa’. It is difficult to describe the escape of the people when their jailers are among the strongest armies in the world! All resistance forces in Gaza are participating in the operation, calling for an uprising in the West Bank. Ramallah has already taken to the streets and rejoiced! As the PFLP says: ‘Today the nature of the conflict is restored and the honour of the Arab nation is preserved.’ Days after the anniversary of the Yom Kippur War, the operation restores faith in the power of the resistance after a series of defeats. The message from Gaza to the West Bank in the bloodiest year of the last twenty years is clear: the West Bank is not alone. The message to the Arab nations is also clear: the resistance continues. Do not be partners to the corrupt elites that continue normalization under the Abraham Accords Trump-style! The message to the most extreme elements of the Zionist right currently controlling Israel in the Netanyahu–Ben-Gvir coalition is also clear: the expansion of illegal settlements will not be accepted passively. The oppression in the West Bank, the gradual takeover of East Jerusalem and the aim to turn Palestinian lands into ‘Bantustans’ will not be a walk in the park. And thoughts of escalation against Hezbollah – the backbone of the resistance in the Middle East – will not materialize easily, for Israel would have to fight on two fronts! It is also a message to all the democratic voices multiplying within Israel, who understand that the political imbalance is the result of an occupation policy that has been operating for a year even against the more 'moderate' parts of Zionism. In a historical coincidence, today is the anniversary of the great uprising at Auschwitz, when Greek, Polish and Soviet Jews rose up against their Nazi captors. The uprising may have been suppressed and few survived, but the call by Joseph Baruch of Corfu remains the motto of freedom for all peoples: 'So, will there or will there not be the twofold [that we spoke about]?' The response of the occupying forces will be harsh. Solidarity must be organised.”

Η ΓΑΖΑ ΑΠΕΔΡΑΣΕ!

Σήμερα το πρωί, από τα εδάφη της μεγαλύτερης ανοιχτής φυλακής στον κόσμο, εξαπολύθηκε από τις δυνάμεις της Παλαιστινιακής Αντίστασης Η επιχείρηση "Επίθεση στο Αλ-Ακσα".

Είναι αδύνατον να περιγραφεί η απόδραση ενός λαού, όταν ο δεσμοφύλακας του είναι από τους πιο ισχυρούς στρατούς στον κόσμο!

Στην επιχείρηση συμμετέχει το σύνολο των δυνάμεων της Αντίστασης της Γάζας, και απευθύνουν κάλεσμα ξεσηκωμού στην Δυτική Όχθη.

Η Ραμάλα της Δυτικής Όχθης ήδη έχει βγει στους δρόμους και πανηγυρίζει!

Όπως αναφέρει το Λαϊκό Μέτωπο για την Απελευθέρωση της Παλαιστίνης (PFLP) "Σήμερα αποκαθίσταται η φύση της σύγκρουσης και η αξιοπρέπεια του Αραβικού λαού".

Λίγες μέρες μετά την επέτειο του πολέμου του Γιου Κιπούρ, η επιχείρηση "Επίθεση στο Αλ-Ακσα", όπως και τότε, ανασυγκροτεί την πίστη στην δύναμη της Αντίστασης, μετά από συνεχείς ήττα.

Το μήνυμα από την Γάζα προς την Δυτική Όχθη, στην πιο αιματοβαμμένη χρόνια της τελευταίας εικοσαετίας, είναι ξεκάθαρο: η Δυτική Όχθη δεν είναι μόνη της.

Το μήνυμα προς τους αραβικούς λαούς είναι επίσης ξεκάθαρο: η Αντίσταση συνεχίζεται. Μην γίνετε συνένοχοι με τις εξωνημένες ελίτ, που συνεχίζουν της διαδικασίες ομαλοποίησης, στο μονοπάτι των Τραμπικών Συμφωνιών του Αβραάμ!

Το μήνυμα προς τα πλέον ακραία στοιχεία του ακροδεξιού Σιωνισμού που κυριαρχούν στο Κράτος του Ισραήλ σήμερα, στην συμμαχία Νετανιάχου-Μπεν Γκκιρ είναι επίσης ξεκάθαρο:

Η επέκταση του παράνομου εποίκισμού δεν θα αντιμετωπίζεται παθητικά.

Η καταπίεση της Δυτικής Όχθης, η σταδιακή κατάκτηση της Ανατολικής Ιερουσαλήμ, ο στόχος μετατροπής των Παλαιστινιακών Εδαφών σε Μπαντουστάν, δεν θα είναι περίπατος στο δάσος.

Και οι σκέψεις για κλιμάκωση εναντίον της Χεζμπολάχ, αυτής της ραχοκοκαλιάς της Αντίστασης στην Μέση Ανατολή, δεν θα μπορέσουν να γίνουν εύκολα πράξη, για το Ισραήλ θα πρέπει να πολεμήσει σε δύο μέτωπα!

Είναι κι ένα μήνυμα προς τις δημοκρατικές φωνές που πληθαίνουν ενός του Κράτους του Ισραήλ, και οι οποίες κατανοούν ότι η έκτροπή που συμβαίνει εντός του κράτους εποίκιστών, είναι γέννημα της αντίληψης κατακτητή που εδώ και ένα χρόνο επιβάλλεται και εναντίον των "μετριοπαθών" πλευρών του Σιωνισμού.

Σε μια πονηριά της ιστορίας, σήμερα είναι η επέτειος της μεγάλης εξέγερσης του Άουσιβιτς, που Έλληνες, Πολωνοί και Σοβιετικοί Εβραίοι εξαπέλυσαν εναντίον των ναζι δεσμοφυλάκων τους. Μπορεί η εξέγερση να κατεστάλη, μπορεί να επέζησαν ελάχιστοι από όσους συμμετείχαν, όμως το σύνθημα με το οποίο, σύμφωνα με τον θρύλο, ο Κερκυραίος Ιωσήφ Βαρούχ έδωσε την έναρξη της εξέγερσης, παραμένει ζωντανό για όλους του λαούς:

"Ρε, θα γίνει ή δεν θα γίνει το ντου που λέγαμε?"

Η απάντηση των δυνάμεων κατοχής θα είναι σκληρή. Η αλληλεγγύη πρέπει να οργανωθεί!
