Security Section

7. According to informant, some members of the Tudeh Party's Security Section are armed with small arms, under the leadership of Reza Radmanesh. Members of this Section include:

Ibrahimzadeh (fn) and Hanieh Ibrahimzadeh, his wife;
 Shahrang Shandarmani - trained in an espionage school in the Crimea; has been in Iran since his arrival there with the Red Army in 1941. According to informant, he is a terrorist and in contact with Soviet authorities;
 Akbar Shandarmani - brother of Shahrang. Shandarmani was also trained in the Crimea and sent to Iran with his brother.

Party Propaganda

8. As of January 1949, Party propaganda was distributed more openly than previously, and copies of the following three booklets in Persian were sold in Tehran at bookshops, outside of Party premises, by orange-vendors, lottery ticket-vendors, etc:
- a. Foundamental Laws of the Union of Socialist Soviet Russia - (printed in the USSR).
 - b. The Childish Diseases of Leftism in Communism - by Lenin (Moscow 1948).
 - c. The Great Patriotic War of the USSR - by Stalin (Moscow 1944).

Many booklets were sent to Tehran University and schools, for free distribution to the students.

Provincial Organization of the Party

9. Ali Akbar Mustafayev*, an Iranian with a Russian passport, who was active in Masanderan at the time of Jafar Pishavari and who has been an active Communist for ten years, has arrived in Tehran from Moscow, according to informant, and has brought with him money for the Tudeh Party. According to an unconfirmed report, Mustafayev is an important person and is consulted by the Tudeh Executive Committee on many issues.
10. Since his arrival in Tehran, Mustafayev has issued instructions that ex-political prisoners and those who have lost their jobs as a result of communist activities should assemble at Tudeh Party headquarters in Tehran. On the basis of their records as well as interviews, Mustafayev was to have selected some of them who would go to the larger provincial centers to spread Tudeh doctrines. In addition, they would be charged with creating Executive Committees in all the towns and would act as secretaries of these committees. They would have the rank of Party secretaries and would receive the following salaries: 4,000 rials per month for single men; 6,000 rials per month for married men with families.
11. Informant states that Mustafayev receives his instructions from the Soviet Embassy in Tehran.

Kurdistan

12. According to informant, Mehdi Hashim Hajafi and Ali Gaid* are the Kurdistan exiles most trusted by the Tudeh Party Executive Committee.

Tudeh Party International Organization

13. Informant reports the existence of an international organization known as the Foreign Relations Office (Dayereh-i-Kharajeh) under the leadership of Engineers Sam'i and Sharmini of the Tudeh Youth Organization. The Foreign Relations Office is an integral part of the Tudeh Youth Organization and communicates with foreign countries by special couriers and certain Tudeh Party members who hold several identity cards in different names.

25X1A6a * ~~Comment~~. This information refutes previous Tudeh Party propaganda asserting that the GUC is an independent trade union organization having no connection with the Tudeh Party or any other political party.

25X1A6a  ~~Comment~~. This probably refers to the Party's Information and Security Commission, the security, intelligence, counter-intelligence, and underground body of the Tudeh Party. Reza Rosta, Reza Radmanshah, and Morteza Yazdi are at the head of this Commission.

25X1A6a  ~~Comment~~. Shandarmay may be identical with Akbar Shandarmay, who was a member of a five-man Tudeh Party delegation which went to Kurdistan in early May 1946, was active in labor circles of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, and did organizational work for the Tudeh Party in the Persian Gulf area.

25X1A6a * ~~Comment~~. Mostafayev may be identical with a Captain Mostafayev (a/c), who was reported to be an active Soviet agent among the Kurdish tribes of Azerbaijan in May 1945, when he was supporting the Kurdish independence organization, Komala.

25X1A6a  ~~Comment~~. In May 1946 it was reported that Ali Gaid was a Tudeh agitator in Abadan, Ahormashahr, and Ahwas, and allegedly received instructions from the Russian Consulate. According to a previous report from an informant having excellent contacts in the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, Hajafi is one of the most important and dangerous Tudeh Party labor agitators in Iran. 25X1X6
